

THE KELLY-CORNELL DEAL.

WHY ITS REPUBLICAN NEGOTIATOR IS FRIENDLY TO TILDEN AND HOSTILE TO TILDEN.

Facts In Its Power Obtained from Leading Republicans. Newspapers The Republican Party in the State Made the Instrument of the Revenge of Canal Thieves.

From Senate Hearings, March 17, 1875.

The note followed to the Senator was not a telegram. It was the note of James J. Belden, attorney. It was to the Senate and to the whole. It is patent to all that Senator and to the whole that Mr. Belden is sympathetic very strongly with Mr. Kelly and the Tammany people. Why? For the reason that you and I would have done the same thing—if that's what he was, he must have been as an idiot, for Mr. Belden is a shrewd man, and knows perfectly well what sort of a world we are living in.

The Allies of the Canal Thieves Are Bad as the Thieves Themselves.

From the Tribune, March 18, 1875.

Nothing could be more silly or dishonest than the effort, by a few of the papers, to create the impression that the Canal Ring is confined to one party, and that the other is innocent. The frauds and robberies to which the State has been subjected in connection with the canals, entitles the other party to a share of the blame.

It is just now Administration Republi-
